Prickett

Barbara Johnson Prickett Travel Scholarship

Eligibility: MLA or BLA. Selection will be primarily merit-based, but will take into consideration need, character, leadership, academic achievement, and a preference, but not requirement, for Georgia residency. Travel support to CORTONA Program ONLY. Eligibility for this scholarship requires that the Office of Student Financial Aid (OSFA) verifies your financial need. First, you must fill out the FAFSA (found on the OSFA website). You should do this well before the scholarship application deadline, as the OSFA's workload is out of our control. The OSFA will use the FAFSA to determine your need and the CED will query OSFA for their findings. If they have determined that you have financial need, you may be asked by the Scholarship Coordinator to complete a very simple authorization form that enables the OSFA to tell us the exact amount that you need, as we cannot award you a scholarship that exceeds this determined amount.

Purpose: To award tuition and living assistance support to a student in the Landscape Architecture program at the College of Environment and Design, by providing a scholarship to students studying landscape architecture specifically in UGA's Cortona, Italy study abroad program.

Background: Established by her family and the Weswood Foundation, this scholarship is in memory of Barbara Johnson Prickett, who passed away in 2002 following decades of service to the Peachtree Garden Club in Atlanta. The scholarship honors the tradition begun by PGC and its Neel Reid Scholarship, and commemorates Barbara's love of travel. Mr. Ernie Prickett, husband, is the Donor Representative for the fund.

Additional Conditions: Award is to be used only by the recipient for travel expenses to Cortona program. Applicants must submit a travel budget as part of their statement (estimate is fine). A report on studies in Cortona may be required post-trip.

Rado

Rado Family Foundation Scholarship

Eligibility: MLA and MUPD.

Purpose: Primarily to provide scholarship support to graduate student(s) in the Landscape Architecture or Environmental Planning and Design Programs within the College of Environment and Design, who have primarily an interest in GIS, remote sensing, photogrammetry, or other specific areas which further the mission of the College. Secondly, student applicants making a strong statement case for the study of environmentalism, conservation and open space may be considered.

Background: This fund was originally created out of the ERDAS scholarship from 1995 by Bruce Q. Rado, and then the Rado Family Foundation in 2003. Bruce Rado received his BLA from UGA in 1971 and his masters from Harvard, he was one of the founders of ERDAS and remained as Chairman of the Board through 2007. Mr. Rado and his wife Andrea are the Donor Representatives for this fund.

Additional Conditions: Merit based, but financial need is considered.
