

Hall County, Georgia

Findings

The Center for Community Design and Preservation (CCDP) located within the University of Georgia’s College of Environment + Design (CED) conducted a Phase I historic resource survey of the City of Hall County, Georgia during weekends from September through December 2009. The project area covered the approximately 363 square miles of unincorporated land within county limits. Hall County is bordered by White to the north, Banks to the east, Barrow to the south, and Forsyth to the west. The center of the county is roughly 45 miles northeast of Atlanta.

The resource survey was performed by historic preservation professionals, and graduate students in the Masters of Historic Preservation program (MHP) and the Masters of Landscape Architecture program (MLA) at the CED. The survey consisted of background research, windshield and pedestrian field work, data collection and analysis.

Summary

A total of 127 resources were documented that meet and maintain a minimum level of age, integrity, and significance. The construction date of all identified resources range from 1812-1957; the period with the most extant resources is from 1890-1899 with 37 (29%), followed by 1910-1919 with 18 (14.2%). Of the resources 74 are buildings while 53 are burial sites. From the 74 buildings surveyed, 19 are vacant, 51 are single family dwellings, 1 is a church, and 1 is a store. Styles identified from the single family dwellings are Craftsman (20), Folk Victorian (11), and 18 which did not exhibit any type of High Style architecture, and are considered to be of no academic style.
